

Level Completion Certificate

This is to certify that:

Turki Ibrahim Salem ALhajjaji

Successfully completed

iPhone Application Programming

This course teaches the principles of iOS application programming, from preparing the work environment and creating a simple application using the Swift 5 programming language, to the different types of user interfaces and dealing with databases, then uploading the application to the Apple Store and activating profit methods through advertisements, and help in starting The career path as an iPhone application programmer, with (6) training and interactive hours.

Hani Abu Arab

24/6/2023